The Living Endowment . . .

Last year fifty-two of the alumni helped initiate our new living endowment program. Individual gifts ranged in size from $1.00 to $50.00, with the total amount of these gifts representing the equivalent of $12,000.00 invested at 4% interest. Many of these gifts were made as an annual pledge, thus assuring to Shimer the income from something far better than gilt-edged investments.

As the second year of our new program approaches, I write to urge others among you to participate in this living endowment program. As you all know our alma mater is in a period of transition. You know—maybe better than I—of the continually increasing costs, especially in food, labor, building supplies—all items of major importance in the Shimer budget.

You know that except for certain tax exemptions Shimer—as all privately controlled colleges—must operate entirely on its income from student fees, (which we feel should not at present be raised further), its income from endowment, (which in our case is very small), and its income from direct gifts from alumni and friends. The size of this last item especially determines the extent to which Shimer can foster and develop new ideas in education by attracting and paying a competent faculty, by extending its library facilities, by redecorating and enlarging the college plant whenever needed.

While large gifts are needed, especially for major plant development, I wish to underscore the importance of the small annual pledge. All of us working together can provide for many of the important needs of our alma mater. Eighty-five percent of the funds contributed to the Endowment Fund will apply directly on the college budget. The remaining fifteen percent will be held in trust by the college to be used in accordance with the recommendation of the National Alumni board.

On the last page of this magazine you will find a form to be used in connection with your gifts to the endowment fund. Don't forget to send your alumni dues of $2.00 for the national alumni organization, also.

The Shimer Family always follows with interest the activities of the Albin C. Bro family. The Alumni News earlier carried the story of Dr. Bro's appointment as Cultural Attache for the State Department in Korea, and of his hurried evacuation from Seoul to Kyoto, Japan, at the start of the Korean war. After some months in Japan Dr. Bro was transferred to Djakarta, Indonesia, to a similar position. Meanwhile Mrs. Bro and Andy, who had planned last summer to join Dr. Bro in Korea, waited in the family home in Cable, Wisconsin, until suitable housing was found in Djakarta. Late in October they sailed from New Orleans by freighter, stopping at a number of Pacific ports, including Honolulu, Hong Kong, Manila, and Saigon, and arriving at Djakarta the day before Christmas.

Julia Steven Krafft Elected to Shimer Board

JULIA STEVEN KRAFFT

The election to the Shimer Board of Trustees of Mrs. Julia Steven Krafft, well-known candy manufacturer of Chicago, has been announced by S. J. Campbell, president of the Board. Mrs. Krafft, who as Julia C. Steven established the Mrs. Steven's Candy Company, brings to the Shimer board important experience in business, as well as a long record of interest and activity on behalf of youth.

Mrs. Krafft's business career has extended from home-made fudge cooked on a wood stove to the presidency of a large candy company. Mrs. Krafft has always been concerned about working conditions in the Steven's plant and stores. Luncheon room facilities, free coffee and tea, a morning salad bowl, are all special features that have been arranged in the Steven's Candy Company.

Each Saturday Mrs. Krafft gives away a one-half pound sack of fresh candy to all neighborhood children, and each Easter a huge party is sponsored, complete with clowns, musical entertainment and candy gifts.

Mrs. Krafft's community interests are widespread, with special emphasis being on organizations that help the youth of the city. During the war much of the fudge made in the factory was sent overseas as Mrs. Krafft's personal contribution.

In the early 1940's the management of the Steven's Candy Company expanded its holdings, acquiring both the Billy Boy Candy Company and the Voogt Candy Company. Steven's candies have a fairly complete coverage of the larger cities east of the Mississippi with a considerable coverage also in the southwest.

Mrs. Krafft is married to Walter A. Krafft, business executive in Chicago. They have one daughter, Virginia Steven Krafft.

In November a write up of the activities of Ann McKnight Rogosin appeared in several Chicago papers. Claudia Cassidy in her column wrote as follows, "Tony Buttitta reports that Anna de Cavallieri is having big success in Italian Opera. She made her debut in the Teatro Rossini in Pesaro (Rossini's birthplace) in April 1949 singing Aida. Engagements in Trieste, Lugo and other cities followed, singing with Bechi in a Sicilian "William Tell" and recently at Bergamo in "The Marriage of Figaro."

Through Madame Scott we hear that Ann's voice is really magnificent and that she is most anxious to be fully ready when she returns to the States. She is most happy in Italy and they are living in a beautiful pension in Milan. As Anna de Cavallieri she is getting known and her Italian is really Italian.

News Notes . . .

Shimer's most popular fall event is Parents' Week end, which this year was held November 4 and 5. Parents of all but a very few of the students were present. Activities started Saturday morning with a visit to the Art workshop. Demonstration classes in humanities and social and physical science were held in the afternoon, followed by open house in the dormitories and at Sawyer House. Following a buffet supper, the students presented a variety show in the gymnasium. Special Parents' Day church services were held in the Baptist Church, with Reverend Daniel Eckert of Yorkville, father of one of the students, as the speaker. The climax of the week end was the Parents' Dinner Sunday noon in the college dining room. Dean John H. Russel acted as master of ceremonies, introducing President A. J. Brumbaugh as the speaker. Musical numbers were given by several students. A feature of the entertainment was a contest to choose the parent and son or daughter who looked most alike, won this year by Mrs. W. J. Gorman of Indianapolis and her son Ben.

- Fifteen alumnae and former students spent the week end of November 11 and 12 on the campus and took part in an Alum-Varsity hockey game Saturday afternoon, the 11th, which was won by the Varsity. The visitors were entertained at luncheon in the college dining room, and at tea in the home of Dean and Mrs. Russel.
- Shimer first conference on general education was held on Saturday, November 18. A number of high school principals and deans from northwestern Illinois and eastern Iowa high schools attended at the invitation of President Brumbaugh. The general topic for consideration was "How can the schools of this region best serve their people in the face of conflicting demands made upon them?" Sub-topics discussed were:

Who should determine what is taught in the schools? For what should we prepare our students? Where should education end? The group was divided into three discussion sections, and their conclusions were summarized by the group leaders after the luncheon in the dining room. Dr. Brumbaugh at that time addressed the conference. The visitors attended demonstration classes and made a tour of the campus buildings.

- Green Curtain Club pledged and initiated a number of promising new students this fall, including several young men. The club presented a play, "The Cradle Song," on December 9, and the annual Christmas pageant on Sunday evening, December 17, in cooperation with the music department.
- Boots and Saddle Club traveled by bus to Chicago, December 2, to attend the Horse Show of the International Livestock Exhibition.
- The Athletic Association, whose membership in past years consisted of girls, now lists boys on its roster. The organization is sponsoring men's basketball this year. Games are scheduled with several out-of-town colleges.
- The various campus clubs this year have been serving after-dinner coffee in the lounge following candle-light dinners on Wednesday evenings. Entertainment is provided on these occasions by students of the music or dramatics department. In November Arnold Bernstein, Savanna tenor, gave a recital, followed by group singing under his leadership.
- The first of the lectures and concert series scheduled for this year was a lecture by John Clark Kimball of the Chicago Council on Foreign Relations on October 16. The second event in the series was a concert November 15 by Professor Harold Stark, tenor, and Mr. John Simms, pianist, both of the music faculty of the University of Iowa.

Miss Thoreen Completes 25 Years at Shimer

Few of you who receive this copy of the Alumni News will fail to recognize the picture of Miss Thoreen on the front cover. You have known her as instructor of French or German, as head of Hathaway or West Hall, as an admissions counsellor. Others have known her for twenty five years as an active worker in the Baptist Church in Mt. Carroll, as a member of Phi Kappa Phi and Delta Kappa Gamma, national scholastic and education honorary societies, and more recently as a member of the P.E.O. chapter at Mt. Carroll, of which she is treasurer.

Miss Thoreen's town is Galesburg, Illinois, where she was graduated from Lombard College in 1911. After teaching in Iowa she received her master's degree at the University of Illinois in 1914. She has since then done graduate work at various Universities in the United States, Canada and Europe.

Miss Thoreen believes in young people. "More than once," she has said, "I have felt that I have learned more from my young ladies than they have from me. At least my pupils have inspired me to grow older as slowly as possible in spite of the speed of these impatient years."

She finds the young people of today have more poise than they did when she started her teaching career, but that they also feel that whatever they do is right—they feel they have the ability to judge and thus rely less on their elders for what is the right path. She says, "Some of this is due to the student council form of discipline, but the pendulum swings back and when the time comes that it goes too far in the way of youth freedom, then we will probably have a reversal."

Miss Thoreen finds her work as an admissions counsellor especially interesting. She says, "It interests me because I like people who are investigating the educational offerings of our colleges and trying to keep up with the different vocations their offspring choose to enter from week to week."

"Perhaps the only virtue I can claim," says Miss Thoreen, "is that of 'staying put', and others might question that as complimentary." 'Staying put' however is a valuable asset to a college. Miss Thoreen emphasizes the standards, the traditions and the educational goals of Shimer and is remembered by scores of students for her high ideals, her kindness and her good humor.

Alumni Office Looks Ahead

The next issue of the Alumni News will be in April, a long time to wait before the news from the Christmas cards reaches you, but we had so many news items after my letter in the October issue that there was room for no more at this time.

By April we will have final plans for our reunions. This year we will not be having our usual May Fete and the Horse Show at the Glengarry Stables will be held earlier in May than usual because of the oncoming comprehensive examinations. There might be an advantage in this change from the point of view of the alumni. You will not have to share the honors with a May Queen, an equestrienne and a horde of parents. Commencement can really be your reunion day and the groups which return can help us plan their activities for a day or two.

The date will be June 2 and 3, 1951 and the classes especially invited to return are:

- Class of 1901 for their 50th
- Classes of 1911 for their 40th
- Classes of 1921 for their 30th
- Classes of 1926 for their 25th
- Classes of 1931 for their 20th
- Classes of 1941 for their 10th

Once upon a time we used the Wellesley plan for reunions inviting classes to return every five years in blocks of four years. We would like an expression of opinion from you as to which plan you prefer.

Of course we hope many others, both old students and graduates, will join us for the reunion festivities.

EX-FACULTY

Ella Fortna Fairchild, (Instructor in Home Economics '24-'42) and her husband are settled in Alaska teaching native Aleutian children at St. George Island, 2,500 miles from Seattle. They live in a six room modern furnished house. They have about 38 children in grades 1-8. The natives of the village, about 200 of them, are Aleuts descendants of an Indian race, with a mixture of Japanese and Russian, no Eskimos there.

Lelia K. Wright (Admissions Counselor 1943-'49) is again living in Appleton, Wisconsin and is doing admissions work for McMurray College.

Elizabeth Moeller (Instructor in Art 1931-'34 and 1936-'38) was married during the summer to M. H. J. Geiken of Davenport, Iowa. Mrs. Geiken is director of the Davenport Municipal Art Galley, a position which she has held since leaving Shimer. Her husband is a representative of a life insurance company in Davenport.

Mary O. Pollard (Instructor in English and Secretary to the President 1916-'36) writes characteristically from her home in Middlebury, Vermont: "I am as usual busy. Yesterday was out on a tout with one of my friends, went to an old cemetery in West Cornwall; with wild roses and weeds and thistles, and my wabbling knees and feet I felt I was lucky to get back without broken bones. Then we went on to . . . All this was to get me away from my house while a new ceiling was being put on my living room. The plaster fell several weeks ago. Such is life in an old house."

Friends of Frances Hammitt (Librarian '38-'39) were startled by the announcement in July of her death. Lois Engleman had seen her in Chicago at the A.L.A. meeting in late January and though she looked frail she was vivacious, friendly, and terrifically busy as always.

Miss Grant Dean of the W.R.U. School of Library Science where Miss Hammitt has been teaching for several years, wrote to Miss Engleman, "She was obviously failing during the spring. Her final illness was a brief one."

Hyla Snider (Instructor of Social Science and Stenography 1928-30) writes from Connecticut Women's College, where she has been teaching since leaving Shimer, "I read with interest of the recent change of name and nature of Shimer College. I am wondering whether secretarial studies have survived under the change of curriculum. I am still convinced that something very necessary can be contributed by such work without great detriment to the liberal arts."

Mona Robison (Nurse at Shimer '46-'48) completed on October 1 a course in anaesthesia administration at the Ball Memorial Hospital in Muncie, Indiana, and is now on the staff of that institution, residing at 618 E. Washington, Muncie, Indiana.

Mr. Scofield (Riding Instructor '42-'48) is happily situated with a wonderful show stable in North Carolina. The family have a winter stable in Florida for six months of the year. His present address is Mr. William H. Scofield, Galvin Stables, Lenoir, N.C.

Karan Tuck Hoffman (Piano Instructor '38-'41) has two boys, Edward, age 6 and George, age 3. Her husband, Bill Hoffman, stills sells Da-Light Screens and she still gives a few piano programs.

Mr. R. H. Seitner, who for several years was public relations director at Shimer and published the Alumni News, has resigned this position and is now in the insurance firm of Leigh and Huber in Mt. Carroll.

• The following News Notes have stopped abruptly in the middle of the Class of 1947. The remaining notes will appear in the April issue.

• Won't you send us names of prospective students for Shimer for Autumn, 1951?

The Scattered Family

A most interesting note was received from Ann Margaret Shambaugh, (Mrs. Ballantine R. Bohart). She tells of entering Mt. Carroll Seminary in 1872 and leaving in 1874 to be married. She had 2 brothers, one of whom, George Ewart Shambaugh, was on the staff of the University of Chicago, a specialist at the Presbyterian Hospital in Ear, Nose and Throat. Mrs. Bohart's present address is 1245 Spring Street, Reading, Pennsylvania.

1884

Gracia May White, Mrs. L. J. Mighell, passed away October 31, 1950, at the age of 86 years. Since 1888 she has lived in Lake City, Iowa, where she has been active in all phases of community work. Her son, Albert James Mighell, has written of his mother's remembrances of Miss Joy and her ability and thoroughness in teaching methods. Mr. Mighell has offered to send us some old letters and pictures which his mother had treasured from her school days to add to our historical collection.

1890

Bina Maloney Deneen died recently in her home in Chicago. On leaving Frances Shimer she married Charles S. Deneen and was, as she herself expressed it, a passive politician for more than 40 years.

Olive Hulsinger Parker writes from her home at Cambria, California, such an interesting letter that we quote it in full: "I have just received the Shimer College Record with the beautiful picture of Isabelle Dearborn Hazzen. Many years have lapsed since I was enrolled as one of her 'Vocal pupils', yes, 57 years ago. A shy young lady I was; homesick and untrained in the ways of college life, I can never forget Mrs. Hazzen. She was indeed a friend to all, always cheerful and ready to assist, when you felt like giving up, always instilling courage and confidence that made one's endeavor seem quite worth while. I never became a prima donna but have turned my talents into teaching and writing and now at 80 years old am launching on the greatest adventure of my life. I am a member of the Shimer Alumnae of Los Angeles although I live up the coast from there 250 miles. I still hope some day to visit Mt. Carroll and Shimer College. It is much changed but I think it would still look familiar. I note with a glad heart its wonderful progress for bigger and better advantages for this wonderful generation coming on. God bless all who are now sheltered there.

Most heartily,
Olive B. Parker

Edith Sayles Robison and Minnie Meier, 1895, were on campus in October and seemed to enjoy the changes they saw. They visited the art laboratory and looked at Mrs. Hazzen's portrait in Dearborn. Everything brought up memories of their days here.

Dorothy Topping Wood keeps in touch with Shimer through the Record. She writes, "My sister Florence Topping was graduated some years before me and is now 82 years old. She was a pupil of Isabelle Hazzen. My piano teacher was Luella Totten. I am a concert pianist and have been very active professionally".

Mary Tapscott Edmunds sends a change of address to 127 Bayo Vista Ave., Oakland 11, California. She writes that her training at Shimer was most valuable to her and the memories are dear to her.

1898

Edna J. Smith, 1898 and 1900, sends us a new address, 406 West Elk Street, Freeport, Illinois.

1903

Helen Coburn Howell has added a new activity to her usual program of writing. She is to be editor of a monthly bulletin of home-town news for men and women from Worland, Wyoming, who are in the service. Her regular work is for the Billings Gazette and news items for KWOR.

Rose Lane Leake writes that she is always glad to hear from "good old Frances Shimer". She roomed in Hathaway Hall for two years and can hardly imagine boys there now, and on campus. She is a farmer's wife and lives near Amboy, Illinois.

1908

Marietta Smith Dreutzer passed away in St. Joseph's Hospital in Elgin, Ill. on May 1, 1950.

1909

Emma Slade Lawrence, Alexis, Ill., visited campus in October and indulged in a bit of reminiscing.

Mabel Hughes McKee and her husband, H. Harper McKee, 1906, believe that to date they are the only two graduates of Shimer that married each other. They expect now, however, to have lots of followers. The last two of their five children were married last March. Margaret McKee Damon, 1920, attended one of the weddings. Last February the McKees called on Elda Platt Lydon, 1914. They found her busy and happy with a husband and three sons and much interested in weaving, upholstering and such.

1917

Ruth Stephan Beyer writes most interestingly of her work as a volunteer social service worker in Kansas City, Missouri. "I have been inspecting classes for the Naturalization Program in Kansas City. My survey is to evaluate the present teaching methods. Our program is so successful that the New York City Naturalization Council has adopted part of our outline for instruction of future citizens."

Kay Marshall Hinchliff has been on an extensive European tour with her husband.

Mae Tippet Monnier was on campus in the fall. She lives in Elizabeth, Ill. and does survey work which she finds very interesting.

Eloise Jeffrey Johnson writes comforting words from her home in Chesterton, Indiana: "Just why did not Frances Shimer decide to include boys in their 'curriculum' sooner? Certainly I would have welcomed a nice Frances Shimer girl as a daughter-in-law possibility . . . My best wishes for success in Shimer's new undertaking." Eloise is busy with civic clubs and church work. Her special satisfaction is seeing her Sunday School class enter into church membership.

Helene Holloway Beitner was married October 28, 1950 to John R. Schembs, in Suffern, New York. Helene's present address is 67 Park Avenue, New York. Her business address is 200 Madison Avenue, New York, where she is Vice-President of St. Mary's Robes, Inc.

Helen Ramsey (Mrs. R. L. Kennedy) writes that she has been married 25 years next June. She has no family and is quite active in civic affairs, especially the American Legion Auxiliary of which she has been president for two years. Helen visits her aged parents in Mt. Carroll occasionally and she says that Shimer always looks fresh and inviting as she drives by.

Gail Hubbell Lottinville writes that she for one would not be glad to have Latin eliminated from the curriculum. Her two years at Shimer remain as important to her as her years in college. She has two children, Barbara, a senior at Wellesley, and Bob who is in High School. Mr. Lottinville is a shoe dealer and a philatelist in his spare moments. Gail has been teaching music for many years but is now teaching Bridge, a job which was rather forced on her but which she finds she likes doing very much.

1924

Ellen Burkhart is teaching English in high-school in Benton, Illinois and is at present President of the A.A.U.W. there.

Ellouise Ballstadt Chesley's husband passed away this fall after an illness of several years duration. She has not seen any of her Shimer friends for years and hopes to resume her annual Christmas messages with them.

Margaret Prichard Carlson has moved to 4932-34th St., Arlington, Va. Mme. Scott reports that Margaret's daughter, Holly, is a dear. Speaking of Mme. Scott, she hopes to visit Joan in Toledo next summer and come on to Shimer to see if her rubber plant is able to stand the co-ed atmosphere.

Georgene Williams Biggs has written "My memories of Shimer are all happy ones and I am always interested in what is happening there. I think the new scheme sounds a good one and with the world in such a mess I am sure it will be an experiment well worth doing . . ."

Dorothy Taft lives in Washington and I see her often. Her husband is with the Department of Agriculture. Edith West (librarian '24-'27) I see about once a year when we get to Chicago. Her husband is editor of Row Peterson, text book publishers, and a delightful person.
